FEATURING KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

MICHAEL BROWN, CEO & CO-FOUNDER
CITY YEAR INC.

Michael Brown is CEO and Co-Founder of City Year, a nonprofit organization that mobilizes idealistic young people for a year of service in high-need schools. This year 3,000 City Year AmeriCorps members are helping to address the nation's high school dropout crisis and turn around low performing schools by serving as full-time tutors, mentors, and role models in 27 U.S. cities. City Year also has affiliates in South Africa and the UK. City Year served as an inspiration for AmeriCorps and has more than 22,500 alumni who have contributed more than 29 million hours of service. For his work developing City Year and advancing the national service movement, Michael has been awarded the Reebok Human Rights Award and several honorary degrees. He has been named one of America's Best Leaders by US News & World Report and an Executive of the Year and a member of The Power and Influence Top 50 by The NonProfit Times. Michael is a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School, where he served as an editor of the Harvard Law Review. Prior to co-founding City Year, Michael served as a legislative assistant to then Congressman Leon Panetta and as a clerk for Federal Judge Stephen Breyer.
